The Commodore's Secret.

The great success of the late Commodore Vanderbilt in steamboating and railroading, whereby he amassed a larger fortune than any other private person during a lifetime, has naturally awakened a strong desire to learn the secret of his uniform and most surprising achievements. The Commodore himself, when questioned upon the subject during the latter years of his life, gave various explanations of it. To one young man, who was about entering upon the career of a Wall street broker, and who had sought his counsel, he said: "Sonny, don't never sell what you haven't got," which was an excellent piece of advice for a stockbroking adventurer, notwithstanding its defective grammar. To another he said: "Sam, don't never put it into any man's power to ruin you." And this might be put in letters of gold over the desks of every one who takes financial risks, whether in Wall street or elsewhere, and would be an excellent maxim also for a politician. To another aspirant for fortune, who had asked his advice, he said: "Don't never buy what you can't pay for."

These were three admirable maxims for business, and he probably acted through his long and successful career in strict conformity with them. He never speculated or made any rash ventures. But his favorite maxim, the one upon which he set the highest value and most seriously inculcated upon those who were on the most intimate terms with him, was a condensation of one among the wisest of the proverbs of Solomon: "In all labor there is profit; but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury." The Commodore had probably never read this golden proverb, and he can hardly be said to have paraphrased it in putting it into his homely advice: "Keep your mouth shut." This was what he said to his young grandson, upon whom he based his hope of founding a dynasty, only a few days before his own mouth was closed forever. He had been giving the young man some words of serious advice, and he ended by saying: "But, above all, keep your mouth shut." He used to say that he owed most of what was called his good fortune to the practice of keeping to himself what he meant to do until he had done it. And this has been the habit of all great men who have done anything during their lives to excite the wonder of their fellow beings.—N. Y. Sun.

"Mind your starboard helm," said a Dock street apple woman, yesterday, as an old salt reeled up against her stand.

"(Hic) starboard it is, and steady, old gal," replied the tar, "but where the blazes (hic) did you learn to steer?"

"Ten years a stewardess in the Liverpool trade, my hearty," replied the old woman, "and down to every wrinkle; but heave ahead, my lad, and save a tide, and let the gentleman in to buy some apples."

"Aye, aye, my lass," said the old mariner, and as he staggered away he muttered: "(Hic) ten years a stewardess and (hic) come to this; our com-(hic)-merce is all gone to the devil."

HIS CONCLUSION.—One who deals in stocks recently read that the word "panic" originated when the God Pan assisted the Greeks at the battle of Marathon 490 B. C., but does not understand the letters B. C. He thinks they mean either "buyer cixty" or "buyers cinched," and in view of their having been a fight for the control, and the high price paid, most probably the latter.—Reveille.

The Texas paper known as the Jimpleute has been compelled to suspend for a few days on account of the weight of snow on the roof of the press room. The editor explains that the suspension won't make any difference as no mails are going out.

TEN YEARS IN WASHINGTON.—Mary Abigal Fillmore was the rarest and most exquisite President's daughter that ever shed sunshine in the "White House." Although she died at 22, yet her memory is a benison to all young American women, especially to those surrounded by the influences incident to high station and brilliant social life. Not content with mere accomplishments she secured a thoroughly practical education. She was a French, German and Spanish scholar, a skillful musician, and an amateur sculptor. She combined intellectual force, genuine sensibility and deep tenderness of heart with brilliant wit and sparkling humor. She used her opportunities, as the President's daughter, to minister to others. "Blessing she was, God made her so," and her memory is a benediction to American maidens. Not many years since, had you chanced to see a plainly dressed girl of 11 Summers trundling through the streets of Lancaster a wheelbarrow load of wood, careless of her own appearance, but deeply interested in the comfort of a poor colored woman, you would scarcely have chosen her as the girl who was to become the social queen of the White House, or who, by her surpassing brightness, was to make such an impression upon Queen Victoria that she chose to make this youthful American girl one of the leading ladies at the Court of St. James. On the continent and in Paris she was everywhere greeted as "girl queen." And when Harriet Lane was called to preside at the White House, honors of every kind, such as probably were never before bestowed upon an American girl, were heaped upon her.

ROGUES FALLING OUT.—Mamma—"What is the baby 'crying for, Maggie?"

Maggie—"I don't know."

Mamma—"And what are you looking so indignant about?"

Maggie—"That nasty dog's been and took and eated my 'punge-cake!"

Mamma—"Why, I saw you eating a sponge-cake a minute ago!"

Maggie—"O, that was baby's!"

Miles Quillan, the County Treasurer of Lincoln county is said to be a defaulter for nearly ten thousand dollars. He used the money in gambling, and intended to return the original after his fortune had been made. But the wheel of fortune turned the wrong way for Miles, and now he is an outcast from society and friends.

There is now a temporary wooden bridge at Ashtabula, and in the Spring a stone arch will take its place.

Five hundred bills were introduced into the Colorado Legislature during the last fifty days of the session.

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA.

TUESDAY .....JANUARY 23, 1877

As Predicted.

The wonderful Legislature which afflicted California last year, besides doing many other cunning things, passed a railroad law. There had been many attempts at legislation upon this point before and all had been uniformly unsuccessful, but this last body of men, feeling capable of great things and smelling this Augean stable, thought to play at hostler and remove the debris. These men all wore good clothes, and soft hands, and knowing that the people expected them to act, hit upon an ingenious method of performing the work. This was by proxy, or in other words, these great and good men knowing that they lacked the courage to meet the question fairly and do their duty, resolved to shift this duty over to some one else. This was done by the creation of three State Transportation Commissioners who should inspect the company's rates and regulate the same. These Commissioners have lately asked the railroad company to file a schedule of their rates for inspection, which, it would seem, the railroad company has not time to do. The Commissioners have asked for a writ of mandate and the company files an answer which claims that California has no power whatsoever in the premises. The bill was always a dead letter and not calculated to be effective, or the railroad would never have allowed its passage. And the only wonder to our mind is found in the fact that the company allowed these men to mention the subject in any manner whatever.

There has never been an attempt made to check the power of corporations except the party making it sought political capital, and then there was more zeal in the attempt than wisdom in the execution. We think that California's dummy law, and similar legal subterfuges in other States, prove that the people must go to Congress for a correction of these matters. Political parties can not be depended upon for their regulation and sections should not attempt it; but there are evils to correct without doing injustice to either side and Congress should be memorialized to give them consideration.

Let us not trifle with the subject any longer, either let it alone or go to work in an honest, legitimate way, for when a people seeks justice, laws are made; when men seek political capital, inoperative acts and expensive law suits are the benefits which the tax-payers receive.

Doctor Mary.

This celebrated lady with masculine tendencies, has been trying to get into the White House, and failed. After sending her card in with great regularity for some time, it returned the other day with the following recommendation:

Whenever Mrs. Walker will appear at the door of the Executive Chamber in apparel becoming her sex she will be admitted. U. S. GRANT.

Doctor Mary has probably quit sending in her card by this time, and it is matter for speculation whether this merited rebuke had a good effect. In pursuit of her rights woman has done many silly things, but Doctor Mary has resolved to out-Herod Herod, and succeeded. The wearing of pants has not seemed to add any new dignity to her person, and has only secured her the right to be ridiculed, which she enjoys without dispute. After trying hard to be a man, and finding that the world will not recognize her as such, it would be more decorous for Walker to doff the disputed garment, and take on a little common sense with which to cover her intellectual nakedness. After boring mankind with her desire for notoriety, and injuring her own sex, it would be well for the Doctor to subside into the feminine province, and devote the remainder of her life to the attainment of average rank in the world of womanhood.

Such characters, however, never learn. They are born with a great deal of knowledge, and refuse to receive any more. There is a large class of these women, who would make good wives and mothers, but prefer to be monstrosities, and the only fact proven by their experience is that they are not men. Nor can they essay manly deeds, or appreciate them. The deliberate misrepresentations of Mrs. Van Cott, and the conduct of Dr. Mary and her ilk, go far to show that masculine women are a failure. We would wish that these characters might see the purity and influence of a good woman, that they might know the privileges of the sex, and not disgrace them.

Rockhill's Assembly Joke.

We notice in the report of yesterday's proceedings in the Assembly that Rockhill, of White Pine, presented a petition from John J. Powell, author of "Nevada, the Land of Silver," asking an appropriation of $900 to purchase 300 copies of his work for general distribution.

We were immediately impressed with the idea that Rockhill is attempting to play a joke on the Assembly, or is bought with "British gold." It is improbable that the solid men of the Assembly will take to such jokes. Powell is an able-bodied man, and we think able to gain a livelihood without receiving a pension from the State. As to his book it contains many errors and is indifferently written.

TELEGRAPHIC.

A St. Louis date of the 22d says: The Chamber of Commerce has passed resolutions favoring the compromise bill on counting the electoral votes.

A New York date of the 22d says: A Times Washington special says: in the next morning hour the House Committee on Pacific Railroads will make a report in favor of the Scott-Huntington Texas Pacific Subsidy bill. A strong minority, headed by Mr. Kasson, will make a report against it.

A Boston date of the 20th says: Petitions are being numerously signed by the leading men of both parties urging upon the Massachusetts delegates in Congress the adoption of the proposed compromise for a settlement of the presidential question.

In the Senate yesterday during the morning hour Merrimon spoke in opposition to sending committees of the Senate away from the city to take testimony. One State was without representation and twelve other States with only half representation, Senators being away on investigation committees. He believed all testimony could be taken by a commission appointed for that purpose, and introduced a bill providing for taking testimony and collecting testimony to be used by Congress. He submitted a resolution declaring that it is not in the lawful authority of the Senate to charge committees of the Senate with duties to be performed away from the Capitol while the Senate is in session, both of which were referred.

A New York date of the 21st says: The Herald compliments Edmunds on the clear, calm and forcible manner in which he delivered his speech yesterday. Speaking of the measures it says it is a wise settlement and receives the approbation of the whole nation outside the few extreme and selfish politicians. It is presumed that only thirteen Senators will vote against the bill. The Republican and Democratic Senators have held caucuses in reference to the bill and the majority in both bodies favor the plan. President Grant thus speaks sensibly of the compromise bill: He said he considered it a patriotic, statesmanlike, equitable proposition for the adjustment of the difficulties, and that no one would welcome a peaceful solution of the Presidential question more than he. He said he had noticed opposition to the bill among extreme partisans on both sides, but it did not appear to him to be of such a character, or to be sufficiently organized to secure its defeat. He thinks the business of the country would give such support to the proposition and would speedily make that support felt from all sections of the land, that it would be impossible for even those who declare their hostility to the scheme to vote against it. He said if he had the chance he should sign it cheerfully and heartily.

A Colusa, Cal., telegram gives the particulars of the killing of Miguel Berryessa, a Spaniard living in that county. While riding horseback last Sunday he was shot and instantly killed by some one hiding in the bushes. The first ball lodged in his back and the other in his head. Berryessa had the reputation of being an agreeable, hard-working man. The murder has created considerable commotion.

FIRE AT EUREKA.—A dispatch of yesterday says: At 3:30 this morning a fire broke out in the Ocean House, and in less than ten minutes the house was one sheet of flames. Three men perished in the fire and two were badly hurt. The killed are Thomas Gorman, Alex. Brown and a man named Collins. Thomas Gorham, a machinist, lately from San Francisco, had his leg broken and spine injured by jumping from the second story window. One man was badly burned about the hands and breast. The fire started in the sitting room from some cause unknown. The house was entirely consumed. Loss about $4,000; no insurance.

Last season the Mackey & Fair flume brought down from the summit of the Sierras 15,000,000 feet of lumber and timber and 75,000 cords of wood. All of this has reached the Comstock via Huffaker's and per the Virginia and Truckee railroad, and most of it has been consumed. About 500 men have been employed this season in preparations for next season's run. D. H. Jones, late or Chicago, is general superintendent, and James Mayberry, general manager, of the business.—Enterprise.

SHAVING PARLORS.—Messrs. Morris & Frankinfield take this method of announcing to their friends and the public in general, that they have opened a new and elegant hair dressing room, on Virginia street, fronting Budden's photograph gallery. Everything is new, neat and clean, including the very latest improved Rochester Barber Chairs, the only ones to be found in Reno. Everything necessary to be had to insure the comfort and pleasure of customers have been provided. Shaving, Hair Cutting, Shampooing and Dyeing done in a practical and workmanlike manner. All kinds of Hair Tonics and Hair Restoratives always on hand. Ladies and children's hair cutting and shampooing a specialty. MARK H. MORRIS.
1-15tf H. H. FRANKINFIELD.

SILVER-PLATED WARE.—S. N. Davidson announces that he will sell during the Holidays quadruple silver-plated Napkin Rings, of Rogers' make, with initials engraved thereon, for 25 cents, largest size, 50 cents. Silver thimbles with initials engraved, 25 cents, and all other goods in proportion.

NEW STORE.—Yankee Dodge is again to the front. He is well aware of the hard times and knows that Reno wants goods sold at the lowest rates and for Cash. Hence Dodge has opened a store next door to Pollard's Hotel, on Commercial Row, where he will keep on hand a general variety of Yankee Notions, such as Soap, Perfumery, Hose, Ladies and Gents Underwear, Towels, and Counterpanes, Buggy Robes, Horse Blankets, Whips, etc., etc. He has a well assorted stock of Goods which he will sell cheaper than anybody. Jottings.

Hon. Wm. Boardman was at home to-day assisting in the defence of Thos. Kelly, in the District Court.

The cutters flew about in a lively way to-day, making the best of the time.

R. P. Chapin has 11,000 rabbits on his place which he is anxious to dispose of, seller 10.

Go to the Board of Trade meeting to-night and decide the question of incorporation.

There are but 8 inmates of the county hospital now.

We heard a gentleman just out of jail say that "a man had better buy his whisky and lay down behind a sage brush than to take the chances of getting into Lamb's hotel. The steak was tough and not well cooked, and they sweetened the coffee in the pot, which was enough to disgust any decent boarder." Poor man!

Considerable interest is manifested in the Kelly trial now in progress in the District Court, the room being crowded most of the time.

The Grand Jury overlooked one nuisance in their report. We allude to the two dance houses.

Reno is to have three new business houses soon: furniture, groceries and drugs.

TRIAL JURORS.—The following eleven jurors have thus far been selected for the Kelly case: James Twaddle, F. C. Updyke, J. H. Corliss, B. F. Rhodes, J. Fellnagle, A. H. Pine, W. D. Coldren, N. A. Merrill, Jas. Poor, John Boyd, R. V. Bordan. A new venire will be issued this evening. The Court meets to-morrow at 10 A. M.

TRUSTEE MEETING.—The Con. Poe held a meeting last night, and the resignations of J. E. Jones and H. H. Beck, as Trustees of said company, were accepted. H. Rhue was elected to fill one of the vacancies, and the other remains unfilled. The company will probably go through bankruptcy.

BURGLARY.—The house of Captain Frank Cook was entered by burglars on Saturday night and five dollars a fine pistol and some eatables stolen therefrom. The family were at church at the time.

A WARNING.—Those who have no visible means of support will do well to hunt for one zealously, because the law against vagrants is to be rigidly enforced.

For a first class Custom made Boot or shoe, go to John Sunderland's, on Virginia street.

Grand Jury Report.

The Grand Jury empanneled on January 8th, 1877, made their final report to-day. They found the following bills of indictment:

Burglary, 1; assault with intent to kill, 1; grand larceny, 1. And ignored the following charges: Kidnapping, 1; bigamy, 1; audultery, 1.

The Jury examined closely the work of our county officers and commend them highly for an efficient performance of their duties.

The sub-committee to examine the books of receiving and disbursing officers found an exact agreement and make the following statement of

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

The C. P. R. R. tax was paid during the three last months of 1875.

The same committee heartily commend the manner in which the duties of Auditor, County Clerk and Sheriff have been performed during the term just ended. An inspection of the Sheriff's office shows the amount of of licenses collected for the past two years to have exceeded $20,000. And the committee also commend the use by Sheriff Lamb of a docket and descriptive registry book. The Treasurer and District Attorney are also reported highly efficient, and the retiring Treasurer paid a high compliment. The Public Administrator has also turned over all business which has been settled and awaits the final order of the Court upon the remainder. The offices of Justices were also found to have been ably filled during the past term, and the accounts of each in the best of condition.

The committee recommend that all bills against the different school funds be allowed by the School Trustees, endorsed "approved" by the Superintendent, and then presented to the County Auditor, who alone be empowered to draw warrants for same on different funds.

The committee also reported themselves highly pleased with the results of their examination, as well as the generous aid given them by the county officers.

Amount of revenue for 1876, $82,545 90.

Amount of delinquent taxes due county, $598 27.

The committee found in General School Fund, $9,101 37, apportioned as follows: Franktown, $412 96; Washoe, $666 34; Mill Station, $238 32; Glendale, $417 07; Verdi, $401 64; Huffakers, $64 84; Reno, $4,680 10; Wadsworth, $948 22; Browns, $461 61; North Truckee, $370 73; Peavine, $8 22.

The Committee on County Buildings recommended a bath tub for the Poor House, a line of hitching posts in front of the Court House, and that the immediate attention of our County Commissioners be given to the Court House belfry, the County Jail, and the vaults in the offices of Clerk and Recorder. They also pronounce the water ditch running through the Court House yard an unmitigated nuisance, and recommend that its owners be compelled to cover it properly. They also recommend a good fire and burglar proof safe for the Treasurer's office.

The jury strongly recommend that our Legislators secure the passage of a general law for the maintenance of roads and bridges, and express their opinion as against the creation of a separate judicial district for Washoe county. A strict enforcement of the Vagrant Act is also strongly urged upon the proper officers, and they are at the same time urged not to burden the county by the agitation of certain Chinese kidnapping and bigamy cases, which prosecution will neither check the evil nor mend the ways of these offenders.

We have summarized the entire report above and think that the public thanks are due to the members of the jury for the zealous and thorough performance of their duty.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The Board of Trade meet this evening at the office of Justice Richardson, to dispose of the incorporation business. Seven o'clock is the hour, and promptness is the request. Let a full attendance of citizens be present and the subject so long before the board receive full consideration, and definite action be taken thereon. On Satuday evening the question of a separate Judicial District for this county was discussed by Mesars. Boardman, Knox, Webster and others. The motion was amended so as to include Churchill county, thus forming a Judicial District out of Washoe and Churchill counties. The amendment prevailed and was almost unanimously carried. Senator Boardman will probably introduce a bill in the Senate this week to the effect that two years hence Washoe and Churchill counties shall constitute a separate Judicial District. Now let the incorporation be or not be, friends of the measure should especially be in attendance and talk business. Heretofore those who oppose the proposition have succeded in delaying adtion on it, and confusing the minds of those who gave it support. If our citizens want the town incorporated, let them give expression to this desire, but if they don't want it incorporated this year, plainly say so. Those who feel indifferent on the subject should stay at home. Indifference and irresolution has nearly killed the proposition. Let us have positive action this evening. If eight or nine men meet, partly from interest, partly from curiosity, and some because they have nothing else to do, the board would show good sense in tabling the resolution to incorporate.

DISTRICT COURT.—In the case of the State vs. Kelley the lawyers were busy to-day rejecting venires. A good audience is constantly in attendance, and it is probable that a week or more will be consumed in the examination of the case. The jury will possibly be completed to-day. Poor fellows, they are at a loss to know why they were selected, while others seemingly as well qualified for the peculiar duty, were rejected. A juror in a murder case is puzzled to know whether he was selected because of his fitness or incompetency. But he has the consolation of knowing that he forms part of the great bulwark of American freedom—the jury. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the legal lights made a fresh attack on twelve innocents, eleven of whom at least would be apt to retire. If one wants to know how ignorant men are, let him go to a court room and hear the answers of those subpoened from whom to select jurors.

PARTY TO-NIGHT.—The party at Glendale this evening promises to be a very pleasant affair. Quite a delegation from town will go down in sleighs and cutters, and have a delightful ride, which, together with the dancing and refreshments provided by the good people of Glendale, will insure an enjoyable time for all those present.

EFFICIENT SERVICES.—The late Grand Jury, whose report is summarized elsewhere, has done excellent and thorough work, and the Committee on Books and Accounts of County and Township Officers is especially to be thanked for its thorough and exhaustive report. The Committee consisted of C. T. Bender, M. Raphael and C. H. Stoddard.

FLYNN'S CONDITION.—Flynn, who a few days ago, gave his physicians some hope that he might after all recover, has been worse for the past two days. To-day he is very weak and suffers much pain. His appetite is failing and his left hip is much swollen. The chances of his living longer than a few days are against him.

The Reno Gazette now boasts of a power press. The Gazette seems to be walking right into the affections of the Reno people, and it deserves to.—Carson Tribune.

PRICES REDUCED.—Mr. P. Schwartz who has a barber shop at the International Hotel, has made a reduction of 100 per cent. on the old prices of barber work. He now only charges 25 cents each, for hair cutting, shaving and shampooing. Dyeing, etc., same price as before. Give him a call and keep the prices down. 1-22tf

STILL ON TOP.—Hurrah for the Centennial. Nick wants the public to know that all danger has been removed. That no man who shaves at the Centennial need fear for his throat. No danger of having your hair poorly cut or losing a piece of your cheek at this shop, on account of a poor light; and why? Yes, why? Well, Nick, in order to keep ahead and have all modern improvements, has introduced gas into his shop and you would hardly know the place. Step around gents, opposite Norton's butcher shop, and get shaved, and come early, for there are always two crowds around. One comes to get shaved and the other to admire the shop by gaslight. 12-14tf

LOVE'S ICY TEST.—The other evening as a patient policeman was pacing his beat on Howard street, a young man passed him and ran up a flight of stone steps and rang the bell. The officer heard the door open, a young lady's voice sing out, and said to himself:

"'Tis love's young dream."

He was just moving on when another young man approached, looked up at the house, and in a sheepish way asked the officer if he had seen any one go in. He was informed of what had occurred a moment before, and he gasped:

"It is that sneaking chap from Cass avenue."

He walked on, and the officer walked, but ten minutes later the young man climbed the stone steps with a pail of water in his hand and emptied the contents over every stone. He was sitting on the horse-block opposite as the officer came back, meaning to stay there until his plan unfolded or until he froze to death. He didn't freeze. In about ten minutes the door opposite opened, two voices were heard for a moment, and then the young man from Cass avenue came down the steps on his ear, his elbow, his shoulder-blade, his heel, or on most any part of the human make-up. He struck the sidewalk, shot across it to the gutter, and came to a standstill with his head in the snow. There was a peal of laughter from the house as the door shut, and the watcher on the horse-block chuckled and remarked:

"That heartless laugh was not uttered by a woman who loves—I'm hunky.

Five minutes later he carefully crawled up the icy steps, and the good policeman heard him cordially greeted, and mused:

"Well, if there ain't more'n seventeen different ways of finding out if a girl loves you!"—Detroit Free Press.

In the Nevada Senate fourteen different States are represented as the places of nativity of the members, and seventeen members came to this State from California. Ross, from Washoe, is the father of the body in age, he being fifty-nine years old. Cresswell, of Nye, is the youngest, he being but six-and-twenty. There are sixteen married men among them all, six bachelor and three widowers. The trades and occupations are as numerous as the members themselves.

The Federal debt shows an increase of three millions and a half in January, chiefly because of the heavy interest account, and this reduces the decrease of the debt since the 1st of July to six millions and a half.

A society, to be known as the "Brotherhood of Old Stiffs'" has been organized at Eureka. They agree to abstain from the use of whisky until after the 2d of January next.
